Chapter 1 by Finlay Martyn

Day 1: Today is the start of the expected epidemic. Scientists say its worse than The Black Death back in 1346–53. I'm personally the most scared out of me, Jack, Jill and Demetrius. Jack and Jill are twins, named after the nursery rhyme, and have been my friends since kindergarten. Demetrius, on the other hand, we met at a safe house. Ever since the beginning of the Mutants, safe houses have been appearing to stop them from massacring everyone. But now it's contagious, everyone has been going insane. I heard one the other day saying "Skeleton, skeleton..." repeatedly to everyone who went past. Anyway, we've sent out Demetrius to collect food as he's the strongest against them.

Chapter 2 by SaintSayaka

He came back promptly, arms laden with what appeared to be cans of beans. That was all that was left, after all.

But on top of them, something small shimmered. A necklace? I was curious. Demetrius never picked up trinkets on his travels...
